

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 26, 1996

SUBJECT: HB 2864

This bill, if enacted, will require the Department of Human Services to annually contract with a non-profit organization in each grand division to serve as a regional institute for responsible fatherhood and family revitalization. The contract is to be awarded through competitive bids and is to establish programs encouraging marriage, reducing infant mortality and increasing the number of fathers who establish paternity.

The fiscal impact of this bill is estimated to increase state expenditures by $294,100 of which $100,000 is state funds and $194,100 Federal funds.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director